

MEETS THE

WED-FRI, JUNE 3-5

This tour takes us to Illinois and Indiana for all kinds of fun, which starts on Route 66 at The Palms, a restored 1935 Cafe' with their blue plate specials. Get your photo taken with a 19' Paul Bunyan Giant. We'll have a Welcome Reception of wine and cheese at the Holiday Inn. To round out the first day, we'll head to Alexander Steakhouse, a wild west themed restaurant, complete with steak dinner that sets the stage for this murder mystery. See if you can figure out who dun it!

Day 2 we head to the Monticello Railway where we'll take a ride through the countryside and have a train tour! Then our journey takes us in to Indiana to the Jail House Inn. Just like Otis on Mayberry, you'll want to check yourself in this historic 1879 Jail where John Dillinger was locked up for robbing their bank. It is now turned into a bed and breakfast with themed jail cells. Lunch today at 36 Saloon. Afterwards we head to The Bridgeton Mill, the oldest continually operating mill in Indiana and one of the most photogaphed covered bridges in the nation. We'll get a souvenir bag of freshly made pancake mix. Up next? Who doesn't love Bob Ross? We're going to paint an Alaskan Landscape Masterpiece with Northern Lights and possibly some happy little trees.

To top off our trip, we'll head to Hardy's Flying Reindeer Ranch, where we'll get up close and personal with Alaskan Reindeer! And yes, they are real! The Hardy's flew their reindeer all the way from Alaska. You'll hear the clickity click of their big hooves and even have a chance to see baby reindeer. How about a scenic buggy ride? We'll meet in the Klondike Saloon and have a chuckwagon dinner, show, comedy, music and loads of fun.

On Day 3 we'll go to Flessor's Candy Kitchen, an old fashioned soda fountain. Then one final stop in St. Louis for lunch at a quaint and scenic venue; The Barn. Karen and her staff will welcome our group with a special lunch and add an extra touch of love.
