This tour is a must-do and not to be missed! We are literally going to NIBBLE our way through St. Louis with a step-on-guide that will share St. Louis history and little tid-bits [gossip] throughout our tour. We are going to NOSH [eat, snack, munch] to our heart's content!

Soulard Farmers Market

We'll visit the renown Historic Soulard Farmers Market, a St. Louis tradition for over 200 years, and shop for great buys on fresh produce, spices, cheeses and so much more.

Dad's Cookie Company

We'll stop here to sample Dad's Original Scotch Oatmeal Cookie; a 3-inch round, crispy, crunchy cookie studded with wholesome rolled oats and one of St. Louis' best kept secrets!

Merb's Candies

We'll stop to purchase some of their heavenly hash or other delicious fresh-made candies.

Gus' Pretzels

Our next stop we'll enjoy either an included brat, salsicca, hot dog or soft pretzel at this St. Louis favorite. Drink is also included here. We'll even watch the soft pretzels being made!

Tower Grove Park

We'll take a brief break from food treats and enjoy a drive through one of St. Louis' most beautiful and gardenesque parks...Tower Grove Park, opened to the public in 1872.

Gooey Louie

This stop will find us at the Voted #1 St. Louis Gooey Butter Cake, where we'll learn about and can purchase these delicious baked goods.

Ted Drewes

We'll enjoy an included mini-concrete at Route 66's most famous custard stand since 1930.

Penzey's Spices, Vom Fass, Kakao Chocolates & Great Harvest Bread

At our final stop we can enjoy spices from all over the world, oils, vinegars & liqueurs, chocolates and homemade breads.
